CATALONIA WILL BE IN THE FINAL

Catalonia has beaten France 10-4 and will play the final of the Blanes Golden Cup.

It has been a match with a lot of goals with both teams playing in high quality. The start of the game has been really balanced, with a first goal of Càceres in a long shot -coming from the mid of the field- that has surprised Gelebart. Landrin, in a free kick, has drawn the match one minute later, and Xavi Brichs has scored after a refuse from Caceres' shot, advancing Catalonia again. Pelicano has scored the 3 a 1 after a penalty and Landrin has exploited again a penalty reaching his second goal and showing that is a great player in this kind of situations. Then some players have substituted the ones that were inside and Molet has scored for 4-2 before a minutes of hard game.

The beginning of second half has been decisive because, within six seconds, Brichs has scored the 5-2 after shooting an assist of Càceres, and 30 seconds later Càceres placed the 6-2 in the scoreboard, what has stopped a reaction of the French in the second time. Catalonia has pressed with their plays and with the third goal for Brichs, receiving an assist of Càceres again, and a great goal for Molet (8 a 3). The French reacted with a sensational Moriceau's goal after an assist of Lasnier, but Del Amor has done the 9-3. The final score has been 10-4 with a goal by Lasnier and another one for Xavi Lladó, receiving an assist of Càceres who has highlight in this kind of play.
