CATALONIA WIN THE WOMEN TARRADELLAS CUP

Catalonia has been proclaimed champion of the Tarradellas Cup for second consecutive year after winning Chile for 6-1 in a match that has been equaled until little before the halftime but that finally the Catalans have solved with clarity in the second time.

After the adjusted victory of France over Italy for 3-4 the Catalans had to win to the champions of the world to attain the 7 points that gave them the title for difference of goals, since Catalans and Frenchwomen tied their match.

In the Catalonia-Chile match there has been a lot of equality and tension in the first part since the Catalans played the title and the Chileans wanted to win the Catalans to remain second place sustaining her enhances of the champions of the world. And it has not been until two minutes before the halftime that Catalonia has advanced with a goal of Marta Soler and little afterwards another goal of Maria Rosa Tamburini has left the match in the good way.

In the second half, with more quiteness, Maria Rosa Tamburini has made two goals that have sentenced the match with 4-0. Mònica Piosa has made the 5-0, Fernanda Urrea has made the 5-1 and Marta Soler has closed the scoreboard with the 6 in 1 that proclaims Catalonia as champions of Tarradellas Cup 2007.
